March 22: "Iron Jawed Angels"

March 29: "Equal Means Equal"

Theatrical Presentation: "A Visit with a Suffragette: Carrie Chapman Catt"

Sunday, May 3, 2:00 pm -- FREE

Anna Mary Williamson Library and Museum (headquarters of Historic Langhorne Association)
160 W. Maple Avenue in Langhorne Borough

Monday, May 25, 10:00 – 12:00 pm – Langhorne Memorial Parade

The Women's Centennial Committee of Langhorne invites girls and women from all over Bucks County to dress in white (period or contemporary) and march in the parade! One hundred years ago, brave and determined women marched for us. Now, on this auspicious anniversary, we honor their memory and legacy by marching in their honor. If the right to vote is meaningful to you, come out and join us in this show of solidarity.

Other activities planned by the Committee:

- Essay and poster contests for Neshaminy middle and high school students
- A postcard-writing party to urge the passage of the Equal Rights Amendment
- Proclamation of Women's History Month in Langhorne Borough
- A presentation on the life and writings of Maya Angelou
- A tea with an actress portraying Julia Child
- A Toast to Tenacity
